

I urge you to keep media ownership rules as they are currently. Diverse ownership--even more diverse than currently exists--is imperative for an informed AND educated citizenry. Do not let citizens become less aware through concentrated ownership.